- Surveys
 - Surveys were extended through the end of March 25th. If we gain 100 more participants, an IPAD mini will be added to the prize drawing.
- DSC Staff Member of the Week/Month
 - Nomination
 - Brian in the bakery at TDubs
- Follow-Up
 - Complaints about “new” vinegar at the Deli
 - The vinegar at the deli was never changed. It should be the same as always.

- Looking into dehydrated lemon packets for people who enjoy lemon with their beverages
- Earlier hours in Eickhoff
 - Requests have been taken to administration and we are in the process of working toward a solution.
- Kosher for Passover Options
 - See attached.
 - Joanna F. will be updated again with which products come in
- Comments from students:
 - It would be nice to have Lucky Charms at the cereal station more. It is a student favorite.
 - Lucky Charms are in the rotation
 - Multiple requests from Brazilian students asking for a day or meal of Authentic Brazilian food
 - Looking into making dedicating a station to Brazilian food. In general, students enjoy when we have authentic ethnic food in Eickhoff.
- Open-Forum
 - Burrito station was understaffed one night this week.
 - Brian is looking into this issue.
 - A student has had multiple negative experiences with one of the staff members operating the omelet station.
 - Brian is also looking into this issue.
 - Is it possible to get the Venti (20 oz) size in the Library Café and Ed. Café for iced coffees?
 - Chef George thinks we may be able to make this happen. He is looking into pricing and ordering.
 - MyZone was completely out of stock at 2pm the Thursday before Spring Break.
 - This may have been an ordering issue due to spring break.
 - Positive feedback about the new bakery rotation in Eickhoff.

- Students really enjoy the Simply to Go options and look forward to more LTOs.
- Sushi will now be made to order at TDubs every Sunday from 6:30-9pm.
