- Comments from students
 - Why is there no more yellow Gatorade? We need this. It is the most important thing that you have in this entire building and there is none left!
 - I think that Eickhoff should start incorporating hot dog Fridays. It will really improve the atmosphere among students.
 - We are going to incorporate them more often into the grill rotation next semester.
 - The yellow Gatorade is the best thing that has ever happened to Eickhoff. Thank you!
 - We are glad that you are enjoying it!
 - Please have people cooking after 8:30pm. The dining hall runs out of food way before closing.
 - We have reached out to the student asking what day this was because we always make sure that all stations are full. They might now have what was on the menu if we ran out but there is always something to eat.

- Open Forum:
 - Chef George:
 - We are going to be expanding the Rat menu for the upcoming year so make sure to check it out when you get back in the fall.
 - Emily:
 - There were no paper towels in MyZone all three times I went there over the last two weeks.
 - There were no gluten free fresh options on the Wednesday and Thursday that I went and it was not stocked.
 - The frozen Indian option looked great on the box but was not so great in actuality.
 - The stuffed peppers were awesome in Eickhoff the other day.
 - Doug, unit manager, stepped up on the grill when they were short on staff which really helped out.
 - Brian (SG):
 - Gluten free beer?
 - Unfortunately we can only get bottles, not kegs.
 - Can we please get the flavors back in the pure leaf tea?
 - Yes of course
 - An Eickhoff cashier asked my friend if she had enough points to cover me to get in. we were taken back by the fact that she did ask us since it kind of is not her business.
 - Jen: they have been asking lately because students are running out of points and are unable to pay for their friends. If they don't have enough points the transaction freezes and then fails.
 - Monique (RHA):
 - I really enjoyed looking at all of the iCommit photos of the staff members on facebook!
 - Are we supposed to get taxed in the Lion's Den if we are using points?
 - No we will look into that.
 - Sam:

- Starting next year classes will begin at 8am. Are you going to open Eickhoff earlier to accommodate these students?
 - We are not changing our hours of operation.
- I have received moldy tastykake vanilla wafers from Armstrong and T-Dubs. Both times the managers let me exchange the item but why are they moldy?
 - We will reach out and talk to tastykake and let them know of the issue. The cause is the packages were probably not sealed all the way.
- During meal equivalency I have been charge more money then I should have been. I went and spoke to a manger and they refunded me but why is this happening?
 - Eric: we will talk to that employee and see what the problem is.
- Are you taxed on get it points?
 - Yes
- The chocolate milk is running out fairly quickly at the K-Cart and in the Lion's Den.
 - We will increase our ordering.
- During Passover the signs did not match what was being served.
 - We are very sorry for that miscommunication. We will work on this issue before next year.
