Food and equipment (including dishes & flatware) may not be removed from the Dining Room at Malkin Sacks Commons. The Dining Room at Malkin Sacks Commons is a “dine in” only facility. Violations of this rule are brought before the University Disciplinary Board. Disruptive behavior, destruction of property or violation of any university policy or code of conduct will result in sanctions through the University Disciplinary Process. Such sanctions may include but are not limited to, barring a student from participating in the dining plan without a refund.
• Any changes in days or hours of operation will be updated on www.diningservices.tulane.edu.
• Requests for changes or cancellations must be made in person at the Campus Services. Refunds are made in the form of a credit to the student’s Accounts Receivable account.

• Tulane reserves the right in the case of natural disaster, pandemic flu, or other catastrophic events where Tulane must cease operation for a single semester or significant portion of a semester to modify its no-refund policy. The modified no-refund policy would be determined solely at the discretion of the university administration.
• Cancellations of a dining plan by the deadline will be charged on a prorated daily basis through the date of cancellation regardless of whether any meal swipes are used. Failure to participate in the dining plan does not automatically release a student from the student’s dining contract. Cancellation will include a $75 administrative fee.
