

Summer 2019 Meal Plan Q&A including Change & Refund Policies

What is the Summer Munch Money Meal Plan?

The Summer Munch Money Meal Plan is a tax free, declining balance plan that can be used to purchase food/beverages (e.g., all- you- care- to- eat meal, coffee etc.) at UAlbany's campus dining and vending locations.

Summer Munch Money

If you are registered for a class during the summer term, Summer Munch Money can be added to your account in several ways:

- Charge Summer Munch Money to your student account (tuition bill):
 - Login to the UAlbany ID Card website
 - Click 'Add Munch Money' from the menu
 - Fill out the form, accept the terms and agreement, and hit submit
 - Funds will be added to your card immediately so you can eat right away! The charge will show on your bill within 1-2 business days.
- Deposit with a credit or debit card:
 - Login to the UAlbany ID Card website
 - Click 'Deposit Funds with Credit Card' from the screen or menu

Students living in Quad Housing and Interns must enroll in person at the ID Card Office, located in Campus Center B-52 (Monday – Friday 8 am to 4 pm).

How do I change or cancel my summer meal plan?

Summer Munch Money purchases are tax free and balances are non-refundable as per NYS tax laws. Therefore, even if a student arrives late or withdraws early during summer sessions, Munch Money is non-refundable and plans cannot be cancelled.

What happens to unused Summer Munch Money?

Any balance of unspent Summer Munch Money will be "rolled over" into Munch Money available for the academic year and will not be forfeit until end of enrollment or spring commencement, whichever comes first. Balances cannot be transferred to other people or accounts (e.g. Podium)

What happens if I arrive late or leave early?

Summer Munch Money purchases are tax free and balances are non-refundable as per NYS tax laws. Therefore, even if a student arrives late or withdraws early during summer sessions, Munch Money is non-refundable and plans cannot be cancelled.

Can I get a refund if I move out of housing?

Munch Money purchases are tax free and balances are non-refundable as per NYS tax laws. Therefore, even if a student withdraws early during summer sessions, Munch Money is non-refundable and plans cannot be cancelled.
