

MUNCH MONEY DINING PLAN ACTIVITY & REFUND POLICY

- Munch Money is a form of tax free meal plan available to enrolled students and is subject to New York State tax laws. Munch Money is therefore non-refundable.
- Munch Money will carry over from summer to fall and/or fall to spring semester, but not to the following academic year. Any Munch Money remaining at the end of the spring semester will be forfeited.
- New deposits made within the academic year will be added to your existing balance. Balances cannot be transferred to other people or funds.

Additional Important Information about Your Student Munch Money Plan

- Munch Money can only be spent in on campus dining venues and is not taxable.
- You are responsible for keeping your ID Card secure. You are financially responsible for any fraudulent use of any account on your ID Card. If your ID Card is lost or stolen, immediately deactivate your ID Card online via <http://www.UAlbanyID.com> or any of the links to GET: ID Card Services on the UAlbany web site and app. Once disabled, the account cannot be used for purchases.

Please contact the ID Card Office at idcard@albany.edu or 518-442-5989 if you have any questions.
