The Meal Plan Accounts

R-Card Swipes

With an R-Card Swipe, a student can visit The Marketplace and return within the same meal block for re-entry at no additional cost. R-Card Swipes are used exclusively at The Marketplace.

Dining Dollars

Dining Dollars can be used at any of Rollins' on-campus locations. Dining Dollars expire at the end of each semester and can be used to purchase single entry into The Marketplace.

TARBU$

TARBU$ can be used at all on- or off-campus merchants within the dining plan. TARBU$ do not expire until separation from Rollins and can be used to purchase single entry into The Marketplace.

Students and parents can add funds to TARBU$ online. For more information visit rollins.edu/r-card.

ROLLINS DINING

About the ROLLINS residential and liberal arts experience

Rollins is focused on creating a strong, liberal arts experience centered on cultivating community in and outside of the classroom. Residential living is an integral component to a liberal arts education; learning and growth happens as much outside of the classroom as within. The Rollins Dining program is a vital component of our residential campus.

Open Kitchen Dining at The Marketplace

The newly renovated Marketplace includes a top-to-bottom makeover featuring new seating, tables, flooring, and increased seating capacity.

From a wood-burning pizza oven and dedicated food stations to faster food-production equipment and a more efficient layout, the new dining hall brings the campus together in an enhanced way at the best part of the day: chow time.

The Marketplace in the Cornell Campus Center is a continuous dining facility allowing for greater opportunity of à la carte dining. Students have an unlimited opportunity to enter The Marketplace (via R-Card swipe) during each meal block. With this model, students will have the freedom to eat where they want, when they want, and still return for more (during that meal block) at no additional cost.
